SERVICE Above Self

TRIAL RUN AT CURLEY JOE'S

Please remember – Stavros – that we return to the Abruzzo Club this week after having our meeting at Curley Joe's last Thursday.

There are probably pros and cons of each venue to be considered when we have to make a permanent decision.

Curley Joe's has the definite advantage of being on ground level but we have to get the opinion of those who have a hearing problem as sound reverberates more than it does at Abruzzo.

I think it would be agreed that the quality of the meal was perfectly satisfactory and the manner in which it was served was certainly very impressive. Ask Peter Johnstone for details.

FELLOWSHIP DINNERS

Ron and Rina were first off the mark hosting Sir Frank, Bob and June Jamieson and yours truly to a sumptuous repast at Paoli Towers on Sunday. Food and company were most enjoyable but we had to leave early, just 5 hours after arrival. I think that it was particularly great that Frank was able to schedule himself to be present and perhaps we will see a bit more of him in the future.

TV RAFFLE BOOKS

Stavros is already on our case and will continue to be so until we have gotten off our dots and sold our tickets.

TV RAFFLE TICKET SELLING AT BARKLY SQUARE

We need a Roster for the selling of our TV Raffle Tickets at Barkly Square on:

- Friday April 7th
- Saturday April 8th, and
- Sunday April 9th.

Please make time to be available, and indicate ASAP to President Doug when you will be available: put your name down on Thursday or email peterdoug@marismelb.org.au.

GUEST SPEAKER: JEFF KENNETT

Yes, Doug again produced the DVD from "beyond blue" but this time he also had audio.

Rotary is in partnership in beyond blue in fighting depression and the program featured various people telling their stories, including Gary McDonald. He is a prime example of the fact that depression is a scourge that can strike the rich and famous as well as the down and outs (like us?).

We learned that depression is a very common problem, especially among men and that sufferers should seek professional help in the same manner as sufferers from physical ailments.

DANCE INTO AUTUMN

Cheryle reported that everything is swinging.

GOLF DAY: APRIL 10TH

Please contact Michael Leahy or Dean Kennedy for further information on where and why this event is being held.

(If you read the last Bulletin Terry, you'll find all the information in there! At Medway Golf Club, and it is the DG's Charity Golf Day – Dean)

CYCLONE LARRY

Even though very far away, Larry had an effect on Brunswick Rotary as Reg Geary had to leave our meeting early to return to work to deal with problems concerning fisheries in which he has an interest which had been hit. I am sure that we all extend to Reg our wishes and hopes that damage is minimal.

D9800 2006 CONFERENCE

Remember, it's this coming weekend in Geelong.
