

Around the Club

Joe De Simone Some of us were privileged to attend Joe's 50th birthday celebrations yesterday. We are most grateful to Karen for the invitation and for the wonderful day she organised.

Typical of their generosity Joe and Karen, instead of presents, invited guests to make a donation to The Rotary Club of Brunswick, Bagong Barrio project.

Raised in the home of hardworking, loving Italian parents Joe enjoyed the security a young person with the right talent needs to excel.

A number of speakers briefly outlined their experience of Joe, who as we know is and was very supportive, kind and generous to family, friends and especially those in need.

I knew he had been very active in student politics, but I was surprised at the extent of it (on par in student days with Michael Kroger – who spoke at the party and Peter Costello). He was so well known at the University that when an identification of significant people survey was conducted amongst the students at that time, he scored higher than Gough Whitlam.

Going into a law examination, Joe borrowed Lindsay Tanner's lecture notes. Lindsay was highly peeved when Joe got higher marks in the examination..

Greg and Glenyce Have just returned from eight days on a house with friends on the Murray River as part of the celebrations for their fiftieth wedding anniversary. They had a marvellous time and we will be pleased to see them this week at Healesville. Congratulations.

Will Moulding Barry Cross who returned just in time to see Hawthorn win the Grand Final visited that other Hawthorn supporter, Will Moulding who is now 104 years old. Will no longer drives and spends his time in an aged care facility and still enjoys a chat.

Eric Gowers is going into Epworth Hospital tomorrow to have a stent put in on Thursday. We wish Eric well and a speedy recover, hoping to see him at the club shortly.
